Upland, Calif., Dec. 10 (AP) — Remember the fairy tale about the little shoemaker who woke up to find all his work done by friendly elves? Well, it happened here to Joe Horvath.

Joe was busy at his cobbler's bench when he collapsed of a heart attack and had to be taken to a hospital. He left a large pile of shoes to be mended.

When Joe's wife arrived at the shop the next morning she found all the shoes neatly repaired.

Elves? No. A group of other cobblers led by Taz Cochran, a competitor who runs a shop down the street, had pitched in to help Joe out. And they plan to keep on working for Joe until he gets well.

Fire which firemen said was caused by a short circuit in an electrical cord in a second floor room in the east wing of "Old Dorm" at Gettysburg college caused minor damage Saturday night. Use of extinguishers and a booster line prevented more serious damage.

COLLEGE CHOIR PLEASES LARGE CROWD SUNDAY

The Gettysburg college choir, under the direction of Parker B. Wagnild, presented its annual Christmas concert to a near-capacity audience in the Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium Sunday evening. The beautiful nativity tableau and the tableau music by the choir, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," "Away in a Manger," and "Christmas Symbol," featured a program of music by the choir and the College Choralists. The Christmas gospel was read by Rev. Edward K. Stipe, college chaplain and the Christmas message was given by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, college president.

"At Christmas we not only observe a great occasion, the greatest of the year, but we pay our tribute to Jesus Christ," Dr. Hanson said. "This is His birthday, when all the world takes its eyes from the trivial and turns to Him; when it seeks to find the way back to the starlit heavens in the Syrian sky."

"Christmas answers more questions than any other event in history," he continued. "On that day nearly 2,000 years ago, peoples were torn by strife and uncertainty, and then, as now, a troubled world searched for peace."

United At Christmas

"Christmas came, in all its grandeur, to those who had little, as well as the rich men. They say that we cannot bring the world together in peace, but class and distinction were forgotten at that first Christmas. The lowly shepherds, the wise men and the rich men with their gifts were all drawn alike to the cradle of the Christ Child."

"Our great trouble is that we are so concentrated on the trivial that we forget that Christmas is God's explanation of the environment in which we live. Once Christmas gets into the soul, everything is different. At Christmas time God draws back the curtain and reveals the light that ought to relieve all our pettiness."

The program opened at 8:30 o'clock following three organ selections by Prof. Harry P. Bolch, "The Journey to Bethlehem," "Provençal Song" and "One Virgin Pucelle."

Following the call to worship by Rev. Mr. Stipe, the audience joined in singing the hymn "O Come All Ye Faithful." The Christmas gospel message was read by the chaplain, and with lights lowered, the curtains (Continued on Page 3)

STUDENT TELLS ABOUT HOLDUP

An eight-state alarm was sent out over the state police teletype system Sunday night for the arrest of an unidentified soldier alleged to have forced a Gettysburg college student to drive him to Frederick, Md., where he stole $9 from him before disappearing.

State police of the Gettysburg substation said that George Brenholtz, Heliertown, Pa., told them that he was returning to Gettysburg from his home, and picked up the soldier at a traffic light in Camp Hill.

When they reached Gettysburg, Brenholtz said, he told the soldier, "This is as far as I am going." He said the soldier drew a pistol and forced him to drive to Frederick, where the robbery took place.

Brenholtz said he also reported the theft at Maryland state police headquarters in Frederick.

State police said that Brenholtz was forced to stop near Emmitsburg to buy gasoline, and in Frederick his unwelcome companion forced him to go to a small restaurant and cash a check for $10. Brenholtz was allowed to keep $1 of the $10, police said.

According to Brenholtz, the man told him, enroute from Camp Hill to Gettysburg, that he had served in the army but had escaped recently from a mental institution in Kansas.

Allies Demand Red Answer On Exchange Of Prisoners Offer; Accuse Foe Of Blackmail Plot

Seoul, Korea, Dec. 10 (AP)—United Nations forces threw back nine minor Red probing attacks along the frozen Korean war front yesterday and today.

U.S. Eighth Army communiques said five of the feeler strikes were made on the eastern front, three in the center of the line, and one on the west.

The communiques reported no other significant ground activity.

A North Korean broadcast by Radio Pyongyang said, "On the eastern front our artillery is pounding enemy positions, inflicting serious damages on the enemy personnel and materiel." It added that a lull prevailed on the central and western fronts.

No Air Fights Sunday

U.S. Fifth Air Force jets sighted 10 Red jets over northwest Korea Monday but made no contact. The U.S. planes failed to see a Red plane in sweeps over the area Sunday.

The air force said an F-84 Thunderjet and an F-51 Mustang were shot down by Communist ground fire Saturday.

Eight B-29s attacked Communist frontline positions Saturday night and three others bombed a bridge at Suncheon without observing results.

Other superforts pounded railroad yards at Kunu and Chongju in northwest Korea.

Munsan, Korea, Dec. 10 (AP)—The United Nations command today demanded an answer tomorrow from the Communists on the Allied proposal to start immediate negotiations for exchange of prisoners of war in Korea. There was no indication what the Red reply will be. The Reds have stood pat on their demand that the U.N. answer their proposal for behind-the-lines inspection by representatives of neutral nations before discussing prisoners.

U.N. negotiators said the matter still is under study.

From Tokyo, the United Nations' radio Monday night lambasted the Communists in one of the bitterest attacks from an Allied source. It accused the Reds of holding U.N. prisoners for blackmail and ransom to win their point on the question of policing an armistice.

Accused of Stalling

The Allies in effect told the Communists at Panmunjom Monday to quit stalling on the prisoner issue.

They told the Reds that an Allied liaison officer will be in Panmunjom at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday (8:30 p.m. EST Monday) for their answer.

And a one-man U.N. subcommittee will be ready to start negotiations for the exchange of prisoners 2 1/2 hours later.

Joint subcommittees working on arrangements for enforcing a truce met only 41 minutes Monday. They quit as far apart as ever but scheduled another session for 11 a.m. Tuesday (9 p.m. EST Monday).

Excerpts from the U.N. radio broadcast were distributed to correspondents in Tokyo by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters in a bulletin labeled "not an official release."

The broadcast declared that the Communists "have made hostages of all U.N. prisoners still alive in Red camps" by their apparent refusal to talk about exchanging prisoners unless the U.N. gives in to their demands for policing the truce.

"This Communist blackmail, which is a thousand times more repulsive than the ordinary act of kidnapping by the lowest form of gangster, should not come as a complete surprise to the free world," the broadcast continued. "The Communists have long held hostages for ransom of one type or another in Europe."

TRADE RUMORS PROVE FIZZLE IN BIG LOOPS

By JOE REICHLER
New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—The wind-up of the week-long minor and major league baseball conventions today produced nothing but a lot of legislative action which was greeted by yawns from the man in the street.

"What happened to all those dynamite deals cooked up last week in Columbus?" they asked.

The plain truth is they turned out to be a lot of duds. An innocent bystander would have wondered a week's salary that at least one trade would be pulled off the way the club officials, especially Buzzy Bravasi of Brooklyn and Gabe Paul of Cincinnati, hustled around talking shop with anyone who was willing to listen.

But now it's all over. No big league trades. No sales. No purchases. No nothing.

Nearly all the club owners and managers have left or are enroute home and Ted Williams is still with the Boston Red Sox. Eddie Stanky is still the property of the New York Giants. Fred Saigh still is seeking a manager for his St. Louis Cardinals and the Dodgers and Reds are no nearer to a deal than they ever have been.

Stymied by DiMaggio
Each league had an excuse for not completing a transaction. American league men blamed it on the veil of secrecy that shrouds the status of Joe DiMaggio.

All clubs are anxious to trade with the world champion New York Yankees who are the only ones with expendable young players with promise. The Yankees, however, have said they will not entertain a deal until they learn from DiMaggio whether he intends to play. The Yankee Clipper has promised he will make known his decision tomorrow.

National leaguers say they have been stymied in deals because of Saigh's failure to select his manager.

"I have broached a deal to Mr. Saigh," said one official, "only to have Saigh tell me he wouldn't do anything before naming a manager. I know of at least two other clubs that got the same answer from him."

Indians, Tigers Talk

To be sure, there has been a great deal of trade talk. The optimistic still think Detroit and Cleveland will engineer a trade soon. As late as last night General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Indians and Charley Gehringer of the Tigers were closeted in a secret gabfest. It was whispered that the Indians were seeking righthanded power represented by the Tigers' Hoot Evers and Johnny Groth, Detroit was after a top flight hurler, preferably Early Wynn.

Bill Veeck, dynamic owner of the St. Louis Browns, said he was still seeking new faces and hoped "something would develop within 72 hours."

Unless Horace Stoneham, owner of the Giants, and Saigh come to an agreement today, the Card boss was determined to leave for St. Louis at 5 p.m. today prepared to name someone other than Stanky as manager. If Saigh fails to land Stanky, the job is expected to go to Terry Moore, popular Cardinal coach.

OWNER OF AUTO IN 2 ACCIDENTS PAYS TWO FINES

An automobile owned by John Brooks Jones, East Liverpool, Ohio, was involved in two automobile accidents over the week-end, borough police reported.

The accidents cost the owner of the car $25 and costs on a reckless driving charge and $10 and costs for allowing an unlicensed driver to operate his vehicle, besides damages of approximately $100 to the machine in one of the accidents.

The first accident was at 8 p.m. Saturday, when Jones struck a tree in the second block of West Middle street, causing the $100 damage to his car. He was charged with reckless driving. Police said a child was playing about ten feet from the tree.

At 11:40 o'clock Sunday morning the same car, according to police, was being driven by Raymond Carter, Gettysburg R. 1. Carter was driving north on Washington street and attempted to turn left onto West High street. A car coming out of West High street, he said, forced him into the curb. When he backed out, he struck the car of Joseph Loughlin, Philadelphia, traveling west on High street.

Damage to Loughlin's car was estimated at $95. It was struck in the right front door, police said. There was no damage to the Jones car. Carter was charged with driving without a license. The fines were paid to Justice of the Peace John H. Basehor.

Carter, authorities said, was home on leave from the navy, and Jones was his guest.

JUSTICE FINES AMISH PARENTS

Lewistown, Pa., Dec. 10 (AP)—Five Amish parents looked to the state legislature today for relief from fines for failing to send their children to school.

The parents were each fined $65 by Justice of the Peace J. B. Peters, of nearby Belleville, for violation of the state's compulsory school attendance law.

The Amish sect claim it is a violation of their religious principles to leave their children in school after they reach 15.

Attorney Robert Stuckenroth, of Lewistown, counsel for the Amish group, said he is seeking to have the sentence held up pending action on a bill before the legislature. The measure would transfer from the state to local school officials the right to grant permits for children to leave school under the 17 year age limit.

The five, all of whom have previously served jail terms rather than pay fines for school law violations, are Mrs. Nancy Penchey, Mrs. Katie B. Yoder, Rufus A. Peachey, all of Belleville R. D.; Benjamin Peachey, of Reedsville R. D., and Memo Zook, of Allensville.

Crushong, New Oxford R. 1, survive. Funeral services Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the late home conducted by the Rev. Paul Levi Foulk, Interment in Rest Haven cemetery, Hanover. Friends may call at the late home this evening.

DRUNKEN PILOT CRASHES PLANE; HAD NO LICENSE

Dallas, Ga., Dec. 10 (AP)—"He's got us stumped," said Police Chief Lott White, referring to the flier he arrested for drunkenness after a plane crash yesterday.

"He missed the airport by nearly two miles," White related. "As a matter of fact, he was so drunk he didn't even know we had an airport."

The chief said the flier's name is Bob Cabaniss and he crashed up a small plane in a plowed field half a mile from the Paulding county courthouse and just beyond a residential area.

"He had a gash on his forehead it took two stitches to close, but he wasn't complaining of pain," White continued.

"We aren't sure where he's from. He told me he was from Atlanta. He told the sheriff he was from Macon, Ga. He told the state patrol he was from somewhere else. In all, I think he's given about 16 different home towns."

Did he have a pilot's license? "Nope," replied White, "he didn't have a pilot's license. He didn't even have a driver's license."

No liquor bottles were found in the wreckage.

"Guess he either was polluted when he took off, or else he tossed out his bottles when he got through with them," White surmised.

"Something else we haven't been able to figure out: there was an open parachute jammed into the back of the plane and it was wet. Every time we ask him something he just says 'I don't know,' and I guess maybe he don't know too much. He keeps telling us we're going to get in trouble asking 'him' questions. Says it's none of our business. We've got some Civil Aeronautics Administration men coming down from Atlanta today and this fellow is beginning to sober up. Maybe they'll be able to make heads or tails of it."

White said the plane flew low over town—"it just missed some rooftops"—and crashed about 100 yards from the nearest house. The plane did not appear to be in any trouble, he added.

Bullets Drub Elizabethtown 73-56; Lions Here Wednesday

Off to a sizzling start by blanketing their opponents from the field for the first 11 minutes of play, the Gettysburg college cagers won their second game in as many starts by defeating Elizabethtown 73-56 here Saturday night before a near capacity crowd.

The Bullets scored in the first 10 seconds of play when George Hare dribbled under for a goal and the lead went to 10-0 before Bolton looped a foul for the visitors' first point after four and one-half minutes.

With all of the Bullets taking part in the scoring, Gettysburg ran its margin to 21-2 at the end of the first period. The Blue Jays failed to register a single goal in the period, their only other point coming on Brunner's charity toss.

Tab Initial Goal

After a minute of the second period the visitors finally got through the tight Bullet defense for a goal when Wilson scored from underneath. Thereafter the scoring saw-sawed with the Bullets holding a comfortable margin all the way. Sonny Jacobs, former Mechanicsburg high star, paced Elizabethtown during the period with four goals. At half time the Bullets were in front 36-19.

Early in the final period Elizabethtown cut the Gettysburg margin to 11 points, 50-39, but the Bream-men recovered nicely to win with ease.

Coach "Hen" Bream used his entire squad of 15 players. Bob Pizolato and Mark Watson were high men with 16 and 14 points, respectively. Jacobs led the Blue Jays with 16.

Although ragged in spots, Gettysburg showed fine form from time to time and gave plenty of promise of developing into a strong outfit.

Three Games This Week

The Bullets are scheduled for three games this week. Albright will be met here Wednesday evening and unbeaten Hofstra on Friday. On Saturday the pre-Christmas schedule will be concluded with a game with Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh.

His resignation becomes effective after the club's final two games of the National Football league season.

It leaves Lambeau looking for a job after 33 years of coaching. After 31 years with the Green Bay Packers, a club he organized as a 20-year-old youth fresh out of Notre Dame, Lambeau took over the head coaching job of the Cardinals two years ago. His Packers won six NFL titles. In 1950, the Cardinals had a 5-7 record and so far this season have won only twice in 10 starts.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—It was a coincidence, but a painful one, that the same day that Tug Wilson came out with his suggestion of "no contact whatsoever" between colleges and prospective athletes, Indiana U. alumni and a Michigan professor put the rap on their own athletic departments.

The Hoosier alumni favored stronger efforts to enroll high school stars at Indiana. . . . The prof merely criticized the athletic director for poor relations with the alumni (who bring in the athletes). . . . It seems likely that Tug wasn't too serious in his suggestion. . . . As long as colleges have representatives who go around to high schools singing the praises of their institutions and trying to arouse the interest of students, they can't very well distinguish between athletes and non-athletes. . . . In fact, we heard one president say that the worst trouble his school ever got into was the result of unauthorized promises by a "field man."

MONDAY MATINEE
Alta Burg, 17-year-old high school junior from Red Lion, Pa., hopes to repeat as national baton-twirling champion next year so she can get a college scholarship. . . . Branch Rickey may sign her first if he hears of such a baton average. . . . Mel Hutchins, the Milwaukee Hawks basketball, and his sister, Colleen Kay (Miss America) Hutchins, are making simultaneous appearances in National Basketball Association arenas. . . . When Colleen steps on the court it's the customers who dribble.

Dick Heylman, who has earned a starting job on the Pennsylvania basketball team as a sophomore, took the longest train trip of his 18 years last winter when the Penn frosh played Columbia in New York.

3-WAY RACE IN NATIONAL LOOP

New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—The battle for the right to represent the National conference against the Cleveland Browns in the National Football league playoff comes down to the wire Sunday with three teams still in the thick of the fight. And a fourth has an outside chance of breaking into the picture.

While the Browns were defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 28-0 yesterday for their second successive American conference title, the Detroit Lions moved back into first place in the National division by edging Los Angeles Rams, 24-22.

At the same, the Chicago Bears remained a strong contender with a 45-21 decision over the New York Yanks. San Francisco's 49ers stood ready to move into at least a tie if the leaders slip, by turning back Green Bay's Packers, 31-19.

Lions Have Half Game
So as the league goes into the final week of regular competition the standings show the Lions leading the National conference by a half game with a 7-3-1 record. The Rams and Bears each have won seven and lost four for second place. The 49ers have a 6-4-1 record.

Next Sunday the Lions meet the 49ers at San Francisco with a victory necessary for the conference crown. Only a week ago the 49ers beat the Lions 20-10 at Detroit.

Meantime, the Rams and Bears meet what figures to be easy competition. Los Angeles will be at home to Green Bay and the Bears meet the lowly Chicago Cardinals.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10 (AP)—Ohio's 572-man High School Football Coaches association was on record Saturday as being opposed to unnecessary roughness on the gridiron.

The association's 16-man board of directors voted last night to write Lou Little, Columbia university coach and chairman of the National Rules committee, urging that his group impose a disqualification and half the distance to the goal line penalty next year for slugging. The current toll for such an offense is 15 yards.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10 (AP)—The U. S. Trotting association reports three records were broken during the 1951 harness racing season. The association, which opened its annual three-day meeting here yesterday, said records were set or the number of horses raced, the amount of purses and attendance.

A total of $13,119,753 was distributed in purses during the season which ended Saturday. The amount was 12 per cent above a year ago, which was the previous high, the association said.

Chicago, Dec. 10 (AP)—The Big Ten has slammed the varsity gate on freshmen. Yesterday, the conference wiped out its emergency proviso that freshmen could compete on varsity teams.

Beginning next fall, all students must wait until their sophomore year to join varsity squads, in keeping with the traditional one-year residence rule. But current frosh will have four years of varsity competition.

Deardorff Again Sparks York Five
Kenneth Deardorff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit O. Deardorff, Steinwehr avenue, has taken up where he left off last year as a star for the York Junior college quintet.

Deardorff, a former Gettysburg high star, landed 26 points as the collegians defeated the Mechanicsburg Depot dribblers 63-48 Saturday night to give him an average of 21 points per game in three games played.

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—The Defense Department says the rearmament program has been hit by inflation and the situation may get worse.

In a report released over the week-end covering the fiscal year ended last June 30, the department said that "almost two billion out of every ten billion dollars authorized for procurement and construction were lost due to the marked increase in prices since the spring of 1950."

Set Exam Sites For PIAA Court Officials
Harrisburg, Dec. 10 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic association today set 13 sites for examinations for persons desiring to become registered basketball officials.

The PIAA said the tests will be given at 7:30 p.m., December 19, at these schools: Lower Merion high school, Ardmore (District 1); Fort Fort (2); Steelton (3); Curtin Junior, Williamsport, and Mansfield (4); Conemaugh Twp., Davisfield (5); Altoona (6); Allegheny High, Pittsburgh (7 and 8); Ridgway (9); Greenville (10); East High, Erie (10); Tamaqua (11) and Tunkhannock (12).

GHS MEETS VET YORK QUINTET HERE TUESDAY

Another tough assignment is in store for the Gettysburg high school basketball team Tuesday night when the Warriors open their home season by engaging the veteran York high dribblers.

Coach Don Cockley, former Gettysburg college star, has three starters from last year including Hal Brown, AP all-state team choice, Don Rohrbaugh and Phil Stough. In addition he has two lettermen from the reserve team of last season, Phil Smith and Chet Zinn.

York, always a powerhouse in District 3, is rated as the probable Central Penn league titlist for the coming season.

Although York does not have so much height the squad has plenty of speed and know-how. Last week the Orange and Blue outfit laced Red Lion 62-36 at Red Lion in its lone game to date.

Coach George Formey will send his squad through a stiff drill this afternoon in an attempt to iron out the rough spots which cropped up as the Warriors lost at Hagerstown 46-38 last Friday.

Warriors Show Promise
The Warriors were handicapped against the Hubs when most of their players drew as many as three fouls early in the game. They showed enough form, however, to raise hopes for a successful campaign.

It is probable that the opening lineup will include Jim Skinner, Bill Williams, Dick Harrier, Dave Swope and Jack Bream. Others who may break into the lineup include Skip Pisco, George Bender, Richie Carter, John Carter, Gus Dayhoff, Bob Hixon and John Beagle.

The preliminary game between the junior varsities will start at 6:45 o'clock.

Following Tuesday's game the Warriors will play at Red Lion Friday night.

"BIG 7" VOTE RESTRICTIONS

Kansas City, Dec. 10 (AP)—The Big Seven conference has clamped a series of restrictions on sports in one of the nation's most drastic cut-backs by a major college league.

The new rulings, which include a ban on post-season athletic contests, came out of a three-day meeting of faculty representatives, school presidents and athletic directors. The meeting ended yesterday.

The post-season ban for the conference's seven schools goes beyond football bowl games. It even affects post-season events sponsored by the National Collegiate Athletic association, such as basketball and track. It becomes effective September 1, 1952.

Other rulings include: Spring practice in both football and basketball cut down. Fall basketball practice curtailed and the number of games reduced. Eligibility rules tightened. Recruiting of athletics by alumni and coaches drastically limited and conference code on financial aid to athletes amended.

Schools in the Big Seven are Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa State, Nebraska and Kansas State.

HOUSE TAKING NEW LOOK AT SENATE CUTS

Harrisburg, Dec. 10 (AP)—Republican House leaders wanted another look today at a Senate-passed $113 million patchwork tax package before sending it to Gov. John S. Fine for signature.

Of particular interest to them was the Senate plan to cut appropriations by $32 million in connection with the tax program as a means of balancing the governor's $1,220,000,000.

The appropriation reductions were tied directly into the tax package when the Senate broke its long deadlock on taxes last week.

Governor Critical

A GOP House leader, who declined quotation by name, said House concurrence in Senate amendments to the tax package, which had previously passed the lower branch, was contingent on its acceptance of the budget cuts.

It is known that the governor is critical of the Senate's plan to cut back a $20 million civil defense appropriation to $4 million and a $135 million relief allocation to $130 million.

These are the two biggest cuts contemplated by the Senate. Others hit state-aided colleges and comparatively small projects such as cancer research. Fine told the Pennsylvania society at New York Saturday night that the tax package was the "foul tax offspring of compromise and expediency."

One-Year Delay

"This odorous tax structure, which is now thrust upon us, simply postponed for only one year the imposition of a broad base tax," he said. Senate disposal of the tax problem is expected to facilitate quick action in permitting the lawmakers to meet a December 22 adjournment deadline.

One possible obstacle, however, is the special Senate investigation, starting tomorrow, of charges by Sen. John J. Haluska (D-Cambria) that he was offered a bribe to vote for the discarded proposal for a one-half of one per cent income tax.

A committee of five Republicans and five Democrats is to hear Haluska "name names and places" in connection with the alleged bribe attempt. Haluska already has employed Charles J. Margiotti, former attorney general, to assist him in presenting his case.

Loyalty Oath Bill

Apart from taxes and appropriations, the House has comparatively little before it in resuming sessions after a long recess which began October 2.

A final vote is expected in the lower branch on a bill to require all public employees, including teachers, to take a loyalty oath. Mass demonstrations are expected here today and tomorrow to oppose or support the bill. Generally, teachers and civil rights groups are against it; veterans' organizations for it.

The Senate still has to dispose finally of a bill to increase maximum load limits of trucks on Pennsylvania highways.

Both chambers still must act on congressional reapportionment. The state must reduce its congressional delegation from 33 to 30 to conform with population changes uncovered by the 1950 census.

Agreement has been reached on wiping out the districts now held by Rep. Vera Buchanan, McKeesport Democrat, and Joseph L. Carrigg, Susquehanna Republican. The bottleneck has been what to do about taking the Third district out of central Pennsylvania.

SANTA and the MAGIC MIRROR

by LUCRECE HUDGINS

AP Newsfeatures

"It Nearly Flew Away With Me!" Said Belinda.

SYNOPSIS: Belinda tells the tooth fairies her troubles. They advise her to go to Santa Claus for help. They'll take her half-way to Santa Land, as far as Tooth City. She asks permission for Tommy to go with her. The fairies say some magic words and both children become as small as the fairies. Mounting a white mouse, they scamper off to Tooth City.

CHAPTER SIX The Balloon

The white mouse scampered through the land carrying his four passengers on his back.

He went so swiftly and followed so twisting a path that neither Tommy nor Belinda could ever have said where they went or how they got there. All they knew was that suddenly the mouse was running down a tiny street paved with enamel and lined with lovely shining houses made of teeth instead of brick.

Hundreds of fairies ran to greet them shouting, "How many teeth did you get? Hope they are good ones with no holes in them!"

Frank and Fanny jumped from the white mouse and helped the two children down. The fairies gazed at them. "What are they?" cried the creatures. "Are they fairies or are they children? Did you find them under a pillow?"

"Shush!" said Frank. "They are children on their way to see Santa Claus and it's up to us to see they get there."

Then Frank and Fanny told the fairies the story of the children's troubles.

"The question is how to get you there," said Frank.

"Couldn't we borrow your little white mouse?" asked Tommy, shyly.

"The way is hard because it is through the snow lands," explained Frank. "It would take white mouse two days to make the trip."

"And what of that?" asked Belinda.

"Just remember," said Frank. "This very night you will be big children again and little white mouse could not carry you at all."

"Oh!" said Tommy. "I forgot," said Belinda.

Just at this moment another white mouse dashed into the fairy city. He carried on his back two fairies whose pockets bulged with teeth they had collected through the night.

"Here's Buster and Barbara," said Fanny. "How excited they are!"

The two new fairies ran forward dragging a strange shapeless red thing about as long as your finger.

"Whatever is that?" cried the fairies. "Where did you get it?"

"We don't know what it is," said Buster. "A little boy wrapped his tooth in it and left it as a present for us."

"What a night!" exclaimed the fairies. "First we get children looking for Santa and now we get a strange what-is-it!"

"Perhaps it is a tent," suggested Fanny, poking at the thing with her foot. "Or a broken sling shot," said Frank.

All this while Belinda had been examining the queer thing. At first she wasn't sure what it was because it looked so large and different when she was so tiny.

Finally she laughed. "It's a toy balloon!" she exclaimed. "Watch!"

She picked up the open end and blew into it. She had to put her whole face in the hole and blow and blow. Slowly, as the fairies looked on in astonishment, the shapeless thing grew round and fat and beautiful.

"Help me!" cried Belinda. "It is pulling away!"

The balloon, now full blown, was about to lift Belinda from the ground when, just in time, the fairies came to the rescue. They threw ropes of dental floss around the balloon mouth and anchored it to a stone.

"It nearly flew away with me!" said Belinda.

"Well, then," said Frank. "Why not fly with it to Santa Land?"

"Do you think we could get there in time?" asked Belinda. "I mean before we get big again?"

"Surely," said Frank. "It is not far as the birds fly. Come, let's get to work."

He ran into a nearby tooth house and returned with a fairy waste basket which was about as big as your mother's thimble. The other fairies made a tiny rudder out of a slender front tooth and fitted it to the basket. Then they tied the basket to the balloon and all was ready for the flight.

Tommy and Belinda climbed into the basket. Only their heads peeped over the top.

The fairies pushed away the stone and slowly the balloon rose from the ground.

Tommy and Belinda were on their way.

CZECH COMMIES BEING PURGED

Vienna, Austria, Dec. 10 (AP)—Czechoslovak President Klement Gottwald, Moscow-trained boss of Czech communism, is purging his whole party to prevent his overthrow by Tito-like Red doubters of Kremlin policy, Prague radio disclosed on Friday.

The sweeping shakeup was called a "reorganization reaching from the lower ranks up to the highest level of the party." It was mapped by Gottwald as party chairman and approved by the party's central committee, the radio said.

The purge was the latest blow in a bitter battle for power from which Gottwald is emerging as the Stalin of Czechoslovakia—personal and political boss of party and nation, with his rivals and their followers in jail.

It is closely linked with Rudolf Slansky, once a fair-haired man of the Kremlin and a long time prime-mover of Czech communism, whom Gottwald imprisoned two weeks ago. Slansky headed for oblivion on September 6 when Gottwald ousted him as general secretary and took over the duties of that job himself.

Gottwald gave him the post of vice premier and coordinator of economic affairs—a saddle with a burr under it because of increasing resentment, and even strikes, in Czechoslovak industries where workers dislike the idea of laboring on exports for Russia.

Operating at Los Angeles county general hospital was Dr. John C. Jones. Physicians in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles watched the color screen as he repaired the defective aorta of Richard C. Russell of Pacoima, Calif. Late last night, Russell regained consciousness and talked a little. He was described as resting comfortably and doing fine.

Russell was born with a narrowing in the aorta, the main artery leading from the heart. Since his

According to state police the couple were walking along the Lincoln highway with a friend, James Kemper of Bristol Terrace, when a truck headed in the direction of Philadelphia skidded on the wet pavement.

GROCERS WANT CEILINGS UPPED

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—The nation's grocers want permission to charge higher prices—basing their plea primarily on increased costs.

Price stabilization officials said they would conduct a quick survey of conditions in the nation's 560,000 food stores to see if "emergency" relief from present grocery store price ceilings is needed. But the officials indicated overall grocery price adjustments would not come for some time.

Your corner grocer took his plea for a bigger margin of profit to the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) on Friday, through the retail food distributors industry advisory committee. The committee represents both independent and chain grocers.

Price Control officials said the requested increase might add one-half to one percent to the country's present food bill.

The advisory committee told the OPS that the grocers need to enlarge their present overall profit margin.

Graduates from the nation's engineering schools are expected to drop to a low of 17,000 in 1954. This will be more than 65 percent below the present annual average of 50,000.

Harney

Harney—The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's church, Harney, held a Christmas party last Tuesday evening after the regular business meeting. A short business meeting was held and arrangements were made to serve the Father and Son banquet for the members of St. Paul's church on January 4 in the parish hall. After the business, Christmas carols were sung and the ladies played games and exchanged gifts.

The Harney Parent-Teachers association met last Wednesday in the Harney school with the president, Mrs. Wilbur Riefel, in charge. The meeting opened by singing "Silent Night." The Christmas Story as recorded in St. Luke 2:1-14 was used for a scripture reading. This was followed by prayer. After the business meeting the following Christmas program was presented by the pupils of Harney school:

"Welcome," Donald Lee Koontz; exercise, "An Old Fashioned Sound"; song, "Here Comes Santa Claus," by Darlene Shaffer and Sandra Harver; song, "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer," by Darlene and Robert Shaffer and Sandra Harver; exercises, "The Hiding Place," "Little Christmas Helpers," "Learning to Spell"; songs, "Christmas Day," "Away in a Manger" and "Silent Night" by the school; "Good Night," by Stuart Dom.

Mary Catharine Shildt, a guest, presented two instrumental numbers.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of the third grade children. The next meeting will be on February 6.

The Primary department of St. Paul's, Harney, held a Christmas party on Friday evening in the parish hall. Christmas carols were sung and Santa arrived as the children sang "Jingle Bells." He presented gifts and oranges. The children were served cookies, pretzels and ice cream and were then shown movies by Mrs. George Marshall.

Mrs. Margaret Haines, who fell on Thursday and broke her left arm and left hip, was admitted to the Warner hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Ridinger spent Friday afternoon in Hanover.

Holy Communion will be on Sunday, December 16, at 10 a.m. at St. Paul's church, Harney.

MILK BOARD'S TERMS EXPIRED

Harrisburg, Dec. 10 (AP)—Since last May the price of milk in Pennsylvania has been determined by a commission of three men whose terms of office have expired.

None of the state Milk Control commission members has been re-appointed by Gov. John S. Fine or confirmed by the 1951 session of the Senate.

One commission member, John J. Snyder, Camp Hill, has been serving without appointment by a governor or confirmation by a Senate for 10 years. The term of another commissioner, Charles J. O'Loughlin, Beaver, expired in May, 1951.

The chairman of the commission, H. N. Cobb, Towanda, has been serving without confirmation since 1949. He listed the commission's service without record with the comment, "We're just hanging on."

In addition, Cobb says the members have not been given a salary increase passed by the 1949 Legislature, which should have boosted their income by $4,000.

The law called for the chairman to receive $10,500 instead of $6,500 and the commission members $10,000 instead of $6,000. Cobb says they aren't receiving the larger amounts, but declined to tell a reporter just what the present salary figures are.

2 DIE IN CRASHES

Harrisburg, Dec. 10 (AP)—Two persons died in highway accidents in the Harrisburg area Friday night. Esther Buchle, 14, of suburban Camp Hill, was killed when struck by an automobile near her home. She was bidding her mother goodbye to go to a basketball game. John J. Stern, 34, of Duncannon, a member of the U.S. Air Force, died in Harrisburg hospital after a crash between his car and another vehicle on Route 15 near Dillsburg.

THIEVES JOLT AUTOIST

Grand Junction, Colo., Dec. 10 (AP)—James E. Houghlin couldn't figure out why the roads seemed so bumpy as he motored along in his 1951 model auto. He found out when he took it in for a lubrication: All four shock absorbers had been stolen.

The annual capacity of Yugoslavia's blast furnaces at present is believed to be between 400,000 and 500,000 tons.

AP BEGINS NEW WIRE SERVICE

Philadelphia, Dec. 10 (AP)—The Associated Press inaugurated today a new teletypewriter wire delivering a complete AP news report to a group of member newspapers in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Teletypewriter is a machine which, by receiving and operating under electrical impulses sent out over leased wires, controls operation of a typesetting machine that produces the news in type ready for use in a newspaper.

Teletypewriter equipment has been in use in individual newspaper plants for many years. But last April, the Associated Press opened the first teletypewriter wire ever operated directly by any news service. This served North Carolina and Virginia newspapers. Since then state circuits have been established in several other states and last June a trunk teletypewriter wire was inaugurated to Pennsylvania, New Jersey and other eastern states. Transmitting point of the new circuit opened today is Philadelphia.

Editors sending the news on a teletypewriter circuit prepare the copy in exactly the manner it will appear in type. Teletypewriter operators then perforate an oil paper tape with a code which will activate the various operations of a linecasting machine.

This tape is run through an automatic transmitter which changes the code into a series of electrical impulses. Reperforators receive these impulses in the various newspaper offices, reproducing the tape in the same form as it originally was punched in the central office. The new tape then is run through the linecasting machines to produce news stories in type.

Philadelphia, Dec. 10 (AP)—Corruption in government could be the chief issue in the next presidential campaign, former Postmaster James A. Farley believes. In an interview yesterday Farley said that corruption, local, state and national, may overshadow all other issues in the 1952 presidential race.

"If scandals keep coming out of Washington and other cities in the northern states, it could develop a voting trend," he commented before addressing the Society of St. Vincent DePaul. Farley added that he thinks Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower "must have given" his backers some assurance he will be a candidate.

Duff Wants GOP To Favor People's Wishes
Portland, Ore., Dec. 10 (AP)—Senator James H. Duff (R-Pa.) says the Republican party, if it hopes to win the presidential election next year, must put itself "in touch with the thinking of the people instead of cramming down their throats something they don't want."

STORMS SWEEP
SOUTHERN CAL.

(By The Associated Press)
Shrieking winds swept southern California today, fanning crops, sandblasting automobiles and snarling transportation — air, sea and land.

Blasts up to 75 miles and hour whipped the smoke from smudges with which growers fought to save their crops from temperatures that plummeted as low as 15 degrees Sunday.

Gale-whipped desert sands scoured the paint from automobiles in the San Bernardino area. The wind stripped palm trees, littered highways so badly that many were closed to traffic. Air travel was shut down. Toppled powerlines cut off electricity to sections of San Bernardino, Ontario, San Valley, Canoga Park and Reseda.

Sunday was the coldest December 9 in the Los Angeles Weather Bureau's 75-year history, with 32. The all-time low, recorded in January, 1949, was 27.9.

Elsewhere in the nation, the weather was seasonable. There were snow flurries from the Great Lakes southeastward to the Appalachians. Colder air chilled the New England and western Gulf states, but it warmed up slightly in the central plains. It remained cold in the west.

Early morning temperatures included Chicago 24, New York 41, Miami 68, Fort Worth 31, Omaha 25, Bismark, N. D., 32, Billings, Mont., 35, Seattle 40 and Los Angeles 46.

U. S. SERGEANT IS DECORATED
Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—An infantryman with less than seven months service in the army when he knocked out five Communist gun emplacements has been awarded the Medal of Honor.

The highest military decoration was conferred on Sgt. 1st Class Joseph C. Rodriguez, 23 years old, of San Bernardino, Calif. He was a private first class when he fought his own personal and courageous action near the Korean village of Munye-ri last May 21, killing 15 of the enemy. He was wounded eight days later in another engagement.

The army announcement today on the award said Rodriguez's action was an "incredible display of valor."

Rodriguez, who is enroute to the United States where the presentation ceremony will be held, is the 29th army man to receive the Medal of Honor in the Korean war. Of the 29, only eight are alive or their whereabouts known. Seventeen awards were posthumous for heroes killed in action, four men missing in action.

The sergeant was inducted October 23, 1950, and trained at Camp Carson, Colo., before going overseas.

U. S. Makes Soldiers "Cost-Conscious"
New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—To make officers and GI's cost-conscious, the army is putting price tags on its equipment.

The price tags, says Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, are a "dramatic way of getting across to the soldier not only how important his job is, but how important it is that he use his equipment wisely and well."

As for officers, Pace adds, they also find it worthwhile to become economy-minded because it may mean a promotion.

Pace explained the army's new "cost-consciousness" program during a Columbia Broadcasting System newscast yesterday.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said a week ago that the navy also is rating officers on their "cost-consciousness."

Dwight D. Eisenhower for president, told a Republican audience last night that Eisenhower, "above all other candidates," could best give the nation strong leadership.

He asserted the Republican party's "refusal to face up to realities" concerning the wishes of the people cost the GOP the last five national elections.

"Don't forget," he said, "coming up in 1952 is the last call for dinner."

"IKE" TO AWAIT
RESULTS IN N. H.

Washington, Dec. 10 (AP)—Republicans seeking their party's presidential nomination for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower may put a lot of their political eggs in the March 11 New Hampshire primary basket.

The prevailing opinion among Eisenhower rosters now appears to be that the general will say nothing if his name is entered on the Republican ticket, awaiting results of the New Hampshire vote before making any public statement.

Senator Carlson (R-Kan.), latest of the Eisenhower camp's leaders to see the general at his North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) headquarters in Paris, apparently doesn't look for any earlier action.

Senator Duff (R-Pa.), another of the leaders, has delayed making a trip to Paris which he had scheduled this month. Duff has let it be known he fully expects to get a political go-ahead signal from the general when he does go.

Edward Bacon and Ralph Immer, Eisenhower backers in Wisconsin, told reporters they would accept the general's silence in New Hampshire as an indication he is in the race and would proceed from there.

The general's name can't go on the Wisconsin ballot, however, unless he files an affidavit that he is a candidate by January 15. Thus a technically uninstructed state might have to be organized for him.

Sordoni Does Not Want Highway Post

Harrisburg, Dec. 10 (AP)—State Commerce Secretary Andrew J. Sordoni says he would "prefer not to be considered" as a successor to the late Ray F. Smock as state highways secretary.

The name of the former state senator entered speculation over the vacancy after Sordoni and Gov. John S. Pine were interviewed at the 53rd annual dinner of the Pennsylvania Society in New York over the weekend.

Although the governor has not offered him the post, Sordoni let it be known that "I won't accept it if it is offered."

Fine said he thought Sordoni preferred not to be considered.

"But I think if there were enough pressure he might," Fine added. "I haven't decided on it yet."

Sordoni, owner of 16 different enterprises, is a former state senator from Pine's home county of Luzerne.

GUY LOMBARDO CAR KILLS MAN
New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—An automobile driven by orchestra leader Guy Lombardo struck and killed a man and seriously injured a woman early yesterday.

The band leader was returning to his Freeport, Long Island, home from an engagement at the Roosevelt hotel in Manhattan.

A hearing has been set in vehicular accident court for January 9 to determine whether there is evidence to warrant a charge against Lombardo.

The victims were identified as Isaac Lillen, 65, head of a chain of hardware stores, and Mrs. Mollie London, 40, mother-in-law of Lillen's son, Robert.

Lombardo told police the traffic light was in his favor and he was driving only 25 to 30 miles an hour when the two figures suddenly loomed before him.

Police said one witness reported the traffic light favored Lombardo, another asserted the light was against the musician and a third said the light was changing at the time.
